

MR. HEARST DENOUNCES SEC. ROOT

Says he is Paid by Ryan to Oppose

PUBLISHER MAKES GAINS

Race in New York Will be Close With Chances in Favor of Hearst

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Leaders of both sides are making predictions and cutting loose their imaginations on figures with little upon which to base their claims.
Nobody can tell the outcome. There are no precedents upon which to found prophecies of what the people are going to do.
Murphy says this city is for Hearst by 100,000. Imhosen claims the state for Hearst by 200,000 or 300,000.
Hughes' claims are as big.
Hearst arrived today and began putting the last pickets on his fences.
He continued the charges that the republicans contemplated much fraud at the polls and attacked Root today, declaring the secretary was employed by Thomas F. Ryan.
Hughes continued his charges that Hearst is a tax dodger and the republicans are meeting every advance of the enemy.
Roosevelt's promised interference which leaked out here, is proving a help for Hearst's campaign.

"PHONEY" SPELLING IN WEATHER MAPS

The new form of phonetic spelling appeared on all the weather maps in the United States today. At the local office only one new word was found, throughout being spelled "thruout." Phonetic spelling must be used, Weather Forecaster Oberholzer receiving instructions some time ago.

FUNERAL OF JACOB WEIMAR TOMORROW

The funeral of Jacob Weimar, 416 North Sixteenth street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house and at 2:30 o'clock from the German Reform church, Fourth and Market streets.

TO LA CROSSE CO. WOMEN

A great many women want to vote. A great many women do not want to vote. We want a great many women to vote by proxy this fall. Will YOU, Good Wife, help defeat Harry Palmer for sheriff? Will YOU, Good Mother? Will YOU, Good Sister?
Of course YOUR father, or husband, or brother, or son is going to vote RIGHT. But, just to make sure, use YOUR influence upon him. ASK him, just to make all safe.
And when you are sure of HIM, see to it that he uses HIS influence to make some other man vote RIGHT. Good men vote, and usually that is all. The other element is all working day and night, but the decent vote is a LAZY vote. It shirks labor and responsibility. That is why corruption so often triumphs over respectability in American politics.
Won't you women of La Crosse try this plan? Get your menfolk to promise ON HONOR to become responsible for at least one other man voting right. Try it! It will pay YOUR CONSCIENCE a rich reward. And when the votes are counted and right has triumphed, you can enjoy the blessed new gown. It will pay YOUR CONSCIENCE a rich reward. And when the votes are counted and right has triumphed, you can enjoy the blessed knowledge that YOU contributed to good government and the protection of the American home.

ELKS PLANNING TURKEY FESTIVAL

One of Those Noted Elkdome
Social Sessions for Thanks giving Eve.

At a meeting to be held this evening the B. P. O. Elks will take up the proposition of holding a Thanksgiving turkey raffle and old fashioned good time on Thanksgiving eve, similar to the one held last year, with added frills. The turkey raffles held by this organization are one of the most attractive social features in the annals of an order noted for its social times, and it is expected if the affair is held it will be notable.
The Elks will also take up other matters of importance this evening concerning the new club, which it is expected will be ready for occupancy by the holiday week. The new club is now practically completed, all that remains to be done being the furnishing and equipment, which is now in the hands of committees. Billiard, buffet and grill room fixtures have already been ordered and a portion of the same is now being constructed by the O. J. Sorensen company of this city.

FRANK CHAMBER- LAIN NO MORE

Frank Chamberlain, brother of Charles Chamberlain, died at the St. Francis hospital at 3 o'clock this morning of pneumonia. Mr. Chamberlain was taken to the hospital last night, but the case was so serious he could not survive until today.
Deceased was born at North Bend, Wis., thirty-two years ago, the 11th of last April.
The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at Miller Brothers' undertaking rooms, and the body will be taken to Galesville Saturday from where it will be taken to North Bend for interment.

LISTMAN MILL FAILS TO INDUCE COURT TO ORDER VERDICT

Two motions to order a verdict for the plaintiff in the suit of the Listman Milling company against C. W. Miller were overruled by Judge Fruit today. Attorney G. H. Gordon, attorney for the plaintiff, moved that the evidence be stricken out and a verdict ordered. Several times yesterday afternoon the attorneys clashed. The trial is an expensive one, witnesses from many points far distant from La Crosse being present.
A special verdict is being prepared this afternoon which will be submitted to the jury late this afternoon or early tomorrow morning.
The next case will be that of Mary Neuvirt against R. Ryan and W. H. Tobin.

REPUDIATE BERG CIRCULAR LETTER

Two Signers Say Prohibition
Candidate Should not Use Their Names

L. B. Cox, one of the speakers for the county republican committee in the present campaign, and John Gaarder, repudiate the statements made by John A. Berg, prohibition candidate for the assembly against V. S. Keppel. Signed statements have been issued by Mr. Cox and Mr. Gaarder to the prohibition executive committee, voters in the Second assembly district and also to Mr. Berg. The letters follow:
"You place placed my name on your political circular of date Oct. 22d, without my knowledge or consent. Several days ago, on first learning of the existence of your circular, I went to your Mr. Merrill and protested against the use of my name and demanded that it be removed from the circular. I find that you are still putting out the same sheet with my name on it and am now obliged to make public protest against your action. I am a republican and am supporting the republican ticket."
"L. B. COX."
"I find that my name as a member of the firm of Casberg & Gaarder, appears on a circular issued by the prohibition committee favoring the election of John A. Berg. I did not sign or authorize this circular, but am a supporter of Mr. Keppel, and make this statement that the truth may be known."
"JOHN GAARDER."

TO LOOK INTO UN- AUTHORIZED SEWER

Alderman H. J. Hirschheimer has called a meeting of the special sewer investigating committee for Friday night at 8 o'clock to investigate the block of sewer laid on Windsor street without the sanction of the council and without the regular proceedings. The board of public works had charge of the work, building the sewer that the Caledonia street paving would not be delayed.
The meeting will be an open one. The members of the committee probably will visit the sewer tomorrow afternoon.

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 1.—The Chamber of commerce today asked injunctions against eight prominent commission houses charging bucket-shopping.

VAN AUKEN RECEIV- ER OF PLANTA- TION CO.

C. S. Van Auker has been appointed receiver for the Mexican Plantation company by Judge Fruit. The attorneys for the plaintiffs and defendants in suits against the original promoters and the corporation for $300,000 agreed to the receivership.
Receiver Van Auker will borrow money, realize upon the assets of the company and endeavor to keep a clear title to the plantation property, pending a windup of the affairs. The appointment of H. E. Horne was objected to, although several of the stockholders desired his selection. Mr. Horne is qualified to act because of long acquaintance with the property as secretary and manager.
Attorneys E. C. Higbee, G. W. Bunge, G. H. Gordon, G. M. Woodward and C. H. Schweizer appeared before Judge Fruit for the plaintiffs and defendants.

TROUBLES OF THE "HEARTS ASTRAY"

Trunks Free for a Moment are Attached by Actors for Wages

Released from one attachment by making a settlement after a large judgment had been secured against the company, the property of "Hearts Astray," was attached for a second time yesterday afternoon. The trunks, scenery and costumes were seized after the release of the first judgment and the beginning of the section action.
Eric Kerrington and Yvonne Terre (Mrs. Eric Kerrington) are the authors of the second complaint, making claim for about $50 for salaries due them. The summons was served by Constable Ommerberg yesterday and the chattels attached before shipment could be made from La Crosse.
Yesterday morning William St. Auburn, advance agent of the company, obtained a judgment of $99.82 against Halton Powell and C. W. Wallace, owners of the company. Whether the owners could be garnished remained to be decided, Powell and Wallace swearing they were residents of La Crosse and intended to remain so. The decision was to be rendered this morning by Justice Hunt. With a settlement made this was unnecessary.
This was done yesterday afternoon and the new complainants received advice at once. Attorney C. L. Baldwin was secured and swore out a writ of attachment. The complaint of the Kerringtons has not been made out, but it is understood to be that $50 is wanted for back salary.
"Hearts Astray" went stranded in La Crosse on Oct. 19. Since then Powell and Wallace have been busy defending suits and attempting to secure possession of the trunks, scenery and costumes. At present it appears that the owners will make La Crosse their residence because of inability to get away.

ZIMMERER WANTS BIRDS PROTECTED

John Zimmerer, 503 North Twelfth street, made complaint to the police department, Judge Brindley and Humane Officer Berry this morning that boys residing near West avenue and Badger street, have been shooting song birds during the entire summer.
The names of a family of boys in the neighborhood are given in the complaint and arrests probably will follow. This morning Mr. Zimmerer secured a bird, shot by one of the boys, and will use it in evidence.
"During the whole summer the boys have been shooting the birds with a small caliber rifle," said Mr. Zimmerer. "For the last two weeks they have been out every morning, and I want it stopped. The song birds are pretty and sing during the day."
"I will swear out warrants for the arrest of the boys if necessary. I want to know if they can be arrested. All the birds will be driven away if the boys keep up the practice as they have been during the last two weeks and entire summer."
Mr. Zimmerer, a German, is a lover of song birds and desires to keep them about his home. West avenue and Badger street form the boundaries for Oakland drive and park. Here the birds congregate and form a good spot for hunting.
Judge Brindley gave Mr. Zimmerer encouragement and may assist in the prosecution. The Humane society also will aid.

INHERITED RICH- ES IS A MENACE

President Lays Greatest Stress on Inheritance Tax
in New Message

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The president has practically completed his annual message to be sent to congress next month. A few paragraphs on the Japanese situation are to be inserted after Secretary Metcalf returns from the Pacific coast. A fairly accurate forecast may be given.
The menace of inherited wealth will probably occupy more space than any other subject. Inheritance tax necessity will be discussed at length. Supervision, the distinction being clearly made from ownership by the government, of all lines of transportation and communication and all corporations controlling the necessities of life will be urged.
The president in making appointments is more concerned as to how a man thinks on the great national questions than whether he is a member of any particular political party.
The question, "is he nationalist or a states' rights man," is answered first. The message will urge legislation to reinforce the rate bill passed last year.

GROFF LOSES SUIT FOR DAMAGES FOR SLAIN DOG

When a bulldog starts a fight, it enters at a risk to its life because the owner of the animal attacked is expected to use forceful measures to end the fray.
Nic Groff, plaintiff in a suit against Henry Einert for $50 damages for the death of his dog, lost his case in justice court today. The trial was held yesterday afternoon and a verdict rendered this afternoon. Motion for a new trial was made by Attorney Thomas Morris, representing Groff.
On the evening of Oct. 16, a bull dog of Einert was attacked by the Groff canine. Einert came to the rescue of his pet, grabbing a hammer and struck the Groff dog. Later William Groff extracted his canine from the mixup.
He threw the dog in a wagon and started home. Later he returned after finding his dog dead. The corpse was placed on the sidewalk in front of the Einert store, Fourth and Mississippi streets.
The case will be appealed to the circuit court, Groff being bent upon securing reparation for the death of his watch dog.

MUNICIPAL TRADE IS COSTLY

(Tribune Special Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The municipal elections in London were held today. Incomplete returns point to a victory and continuance of power for the progressives, notwithstanding the fact that the campaign against them this year has been more bitter than ever before. Recent developments indicate unmistakably that there is a growing demand for municipal reform, but evidently the people have not yet been aroused sufficiently to oust the so-called progressive party.

It is a matter of common knowledge that in every borough where progressives are in power the rates are steadily and rapidly increasing because of lavish and most unreasonable socialistic expenditures. Enormous sums have been spent in the past few years by the progressives for libraries, bath-housing schemes, parks, music, street improvements, street lighting, tram lines and other things so that the average tax rate in London has been increased about 50 per cent since 1890.

The results prove that municipal trading means municipal debt. A recent return shows that the total net debt of London twelve months ago was $516,187,270. Of this tremendous total no less than $241,488,095, or nearly one-half was in respect of tramways, workmen's dwellings, water supply, electric light, and minor so-called "remunerative" undertakings. The taxpayers of London pay close upon four million pounds sterling every year in interest upon and repayment of this debt. An eminent American sociologist has published a volume in which he predicts bankruptcy for London's communal enterprises, and an equally prominent Italian sociologist, who recently visited London, states that the borrowing propensities of the metropolis will sooner or later bring about a crisis.

Glaring examples of wasteful municipal expenditures are to be seen on every hand. But recently a new building was opened by the borough council in Battersea. It is fitted up for billiards, bagatelle, chess, draughts and other games. The cost of the building and its maintenance will come out of the rates. Poplar, the most rate-ridden district of London, is another glaring example of the ineffectiveness of municipal trading. Despite its rate of twelve shillings in the pound the district owes $2,650,000. Sixteen years ago the borough's indebtedness was only $208,415. This virtual state of bankruptcy has been brought about by the borough's erection of handsome baths, libraries and other public institutions including appropriately enough a magnificent workhouse.

ECUADOR'S NEW TARIFF

(Tribune Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Ecuador's new tariff schedule, which goes into effect today, provides for a complete classification and makes reduction on some classes of goods sent from the United States to Ecuador. No marked alterations on the chief exports from the United States to Ecuador are to be noted, however. There is no change in duty on flour and lard, which are the chief American exports to the southern republic.

IA. TEACHERS' MEET

(Tribune Special Service.)

ATLANTICA, Iowa, Nov. 1.—Throughout the day members of the Southeastern Iowa Teachers' association have been arriving for their annual meeting, which opens tonight, to continue until the end of the week. All indications point to an unusually interesting and profitable meeting. The Methodist church has been prepared for the sessions, which open with the annual address of the president, Superintendent J. H. Beveridge of Missouri Valley. President H. H. Scerley of the State Normal School, President A. B. Storms of Iowa State College, Dr. E. A. Steiner of Iowa College, Dr. Nathaniel Butler of the University of Chicago, State Superintendent John F. Riggs, and a number of other prominent educators are on the program.

FASHION PARAGRAPHS FROM NEW YORK

(Tribune Special Service.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Striped materials of all kinds are much in evidence. Sheer goods, chiffon, voile and gauzes of all descriptions are to be worn right through the winter, so that a handsome afternoon gown purchased at this time of the year is sure to prove a good investment.

The handsomest, that is, the most elaborate, dresses now made up are of striped chiffon, black and white being the most popular and the width of the stripe carrying from an almost indefinite line to a full inch band. Naturally the width of the stripe must depend to a great extent upon the size of the wearer—to a woman of petite build a narrow line is generally becoming, while a stout figure can carry off effectively a more conspicuous design. So far black and white, or gray and white are more popular than white and colored stripes, but in pale blue and in red and white some charmingly pretty costumes have already been made up.

The black and white striped material should be made up over white silk or pale gray. Black would not be at all attractive. In the colors also, white is the best, although a pale blue of the shade of itself is often attractive. Silk, of course, can be made up over any lining, although the gown can be lightened or rendered darker in tone according to the shade of the underling.

Even in the heavy street suits striped flannels and cloths prevail to no small extent, and in fact, in all textures that were of a check or plaid stripes have appeared. Naturally only the rough suits for walking or golf would be made up of striped cloth, although many of the handsomest suits for the coming winter will be striped velvet, velveteen and all velvet textures.

Any fancy texture needs clever handling in making up, and a striped material is no exception to the rule. With chiffons and voiles care must be taken that there are not too many cross straps of trimming to cut the figure. The end of the skirt may always be trimmed with ruchings and narrow ruffles of the material, and these may be carried as far up on the skirt as the figure will allow. The waist also will be sufficiently trimmed with a yoke and a vest of handsome lace, bordered with a piping pale blue and mauve silk—that is, with a black and white chiffon. Three-quarter or short sleeves are alone fashionable for an afternoon gown, so that the full chiffon puff can be attractively finished off at the elbow with soft ruching of the material, combined with lace.

It is a great temptation nowadays with any light flimsy texture to attempt the empire. As a rule, however, a princess gown is infinitely more becoming and the dress can be of quite as new a design if the material is fitted about the waist and hips. As the empire is supposedly so fashionable at the moment a vague suggestion of this style can be given in almost any sort of bodice without showing any of the loose, ungainly lines that cause the empire to be avoided by so many women.

Striped tweeds bid fair to be very popular for knockabouts or school wraps of the ulster variety for high school girls and college student's wear. These coats are especially useful at this time of the year, when weather conditions require a thin frock in the house, yet demand protection on the street.

Exceedingly smart is an imported coat designed for a girl of sixteen, in stripes of natural tones cut in plain box lines and full length. The back is perfectly plain, but in the front begins a stole effect at the neck, which gradually widens, rounding off just below the waist line until it reaches the under arm seam, where the edges are taken in with the back. Tailor stitching decorates the edges of this stole, and at a convenient point pockets are sewn in, though there is not the slightest evidence of these, the hands just slipping through the slits. The sleeves are a medium mandolin shape, with a bias strapping down the upper part of the sleeve, or rather two strappings arranged close together, in this way forming points with the stripes. An up to date hood displays itself over the shoulders and a rolling collar of the goods completed this stylish, practical coat, which, save for tailor stitching is absolutely untrimmed.

If you are to be in fashion this winter you are to be trimmed, much trimmed, as to gowns, hats and even fur coats. No matter if your tastes are Quakerish and your income on the wrong side of nothing, trimmings you must have. Moreover, when you see these trimmings in all their beauty, of coloring, texture and design your quiet proclivities will be no more.

Severe simplicity may have its day again—but it will not be this winter. The tiniest peep into shop windows makes this evident. Braids, passementaries, tinsels, jetted and jeweled laces, hats and broadcloths and chiffon alike are beflowered and befringed; hand embroidery everywhere; velvet and cloth, velvet and taffeta, velvet and braids in the most remarkable combinations; nets and chiffon—voile with soutache—braided taffeta; filmy, glittering sequins, beads, bugles and danglers; ornate buttons as big as silver dollars; wonderful buckles in dull bronze gilt and silver, rhinestones and colored jewel effect—such are a few of the gauds with which lovely woman is to beautify her person and deplete her pocketbook.

NEW ZEALAND LETTERS

(Tribune Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—On and after today, according to an order of the Post Office Department, letters originating in New Zealand and prepaid by postage stamps at the rate of 1 penny, or 2 cents, for each half ounce, are to be delivered to addressees in the United States without the collection of additional postage. Heretofore New Zealand has been obliged to pay 5 cents letter postage on correspondence delivered in the United States, while correspondence carried in the same vessel transported across this country for delivery in Canada or Great Britain has been carried at the rate of 2 cents per each half ounce. The new order is expected to aid in the promotion of closer business relations between New Zealand and the United States.

CONGRESS OF MOTHERS

(Special Tribune Dispatch.)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 1.—The Pennsylvania Congress of Mothers, which recently came into prominence by recalling an invitation sent to Anthony Comstock, the purity mentor of New York, to deliver an address opens a three days' session in this city tonight. The delegates commenced arriving this morning, and all were promptly escorted to the quarters assigned to them. The arrangements for the gathering are of the most perfect and elaborate character. The big auditorium of Library Hall, where the session are to be held, has been handsomely decorated. The program for the initial session provides for addresses by Mrs. Frederick Schoff, president of the National Congress of Mothers, and C. George Beck, principal of the Clarion State Normal School. Mrs. George K. Johnson of Philadelphia will preside.

About the Eyes

Your eyes are subject to as many different defects as the body is to deformities, whereas it should be one of the most perfect of the body.

In civilized countries or especially in even primarily educated countries, 999 people out of 1000 wear glasses some time in life. It is natural that you should need glasses for reading, writing, sewing and other close work between the ages of 40 and 45 years.

A perfect eye should need glasses at this age to relieve them from strain when being used for near work. Many young people need glasses early in life to relieve the various forms of eye strain which is the cause of 75 per cent. of all headaches. Just think it has been proven by eminent authorities that three people out of four that have headaches, have defective eyes, and glasses are the remedy, because they CORRECT the DEFECTS when perfectly fitted and there is no eye strain.

When you get ready to be relieved of these headaches and make sewing, reading and all near work comfortable and easy, call and have me fit you with glasses that I guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or no charge.

BERG GOT THE VOTES PLEDGED

Story That is Going the Rounds About Certain Recommendations

Editor Tribune:

In The Tribune dated Oct. 30, there appeared an article under the above caption casting reflections derogatory to the honesty of purpose of Mr. Berg and his campaign committee in regard to a certain letter used in his campaign. The story represents that the parties who signed this letter were fooled—that they did not know that they were promising Mr. Berg political support—that they thought they were signing a simple letter of "recommendation," etc.

This is the letter, it speaks for itself:

Onalaska, Wis., Oct. 22, 1906.
 To the Voters of the Second Assembly District of La Crosse County:
 A splendid opportunity is now open to the voters of the above named district to send a good and true man to the legislature.

Mr. John A. Berg has been duly nominated for this office; it remains now for the voters of this district to unite and give him a handsome majority. He is a prohibitionist to be sure, but a reasonable and sensible man. He stands for civic righteousness and opposes all forms of municipal corruption. He favors and will maintain all measures for the making of good citizenship and that which will protect the home, the school and the state. Mr. Berg is a clean, well informed business man.

Why not lay aside all party affiliations at the coming election and send this well qualified man to the legislature?

We propose to make a strong campaign for his election.

Will you not join us and speak to your friends and neighbors about him? It certainly would be refreshing to have a man represent us who is upright and will attend strictly to business.

Hoping you will give us your vote and influence, we are yours for honest and economical government.

The above letter is signed by men of affairs. Prominent, representative men from all parties in the voting precincts of the Second assembly district and it is no compliment to their intelligence to assert that they did not know what they were signing when they signed the above letter.

The last paragraph in the story printed Oct. 30, reads as follows:

"Some of the alleged signers of the Berg paper absolutely deny any connection with it today."

The only grain of truth that we can conceive of in the above may be in the fact that in one or two instances a member of a firm signed the firm name instead of his individual name.

THE ORIGINAL LETTERS WITH THE SIGNATURES ARE ON FILE.

FINAL DIVIDEND PAID

(Tribune Special Service.)
 KEENE, N. H., Nov. 1.—A final dividend in liquidation was paid today to depositors of the Keene Guaranty Savings Bank, which failed in 1894. The final dividend amounted to 64 per cent, making a total of 76 1/4 per cent recovered by the depositors. The Guaranty bank was one of the several New Hampshire banks which went out of existence as the result of the financial difficulties between 1890 and 1897.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

NORTH SIDE SMALL DAMAGE ON NORTH SIDE

The damage done on the North side last evening was slight, but some things were committed which show the miscreants to be very heartless.

One Caledonia street where Wooley & Hanson have been installing the cement corners all the fences were torn away and the fresh cement covered with footprints.

At 1528 Avon street, the home of James Smith, city water tapper, stones were thrown through the windows, and at the store of P. O. Hanson, half a block south, the windows were also broken.

Nearly all the windows in the business section were besmeared with soap.

SALOON IS SOLD

H. V. Schneider has sold his place of business at 506 Mill street, to George Baldwin, who is now in business at 1802 George street, and to Herbert Coolidge on George street.

Coolidge and Baldwin took possession of the place today.

Mr. Schneider has been ill for some time and has been so low at times that he has been unable to take care of his business and therefore decided to sell out.

FAREWELL PARTY

Rev. H. M. Anderson was entertained last evening in the church parlors by his congregation at a farewell party.

Rev. Anderson delivered an interesting farewell address. Music was rendered by the choir and refreshments were served.

Rev. Anderson will leave this evening for Dell Rapids, S. D., where he will accept another pastorate.

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Miss Violet Jollivette, 1213 Caledonia street, entertained a number of her little friends last evening at a Halloween party.

Henry P. Lawson left today at noon for Chicago where he will remain for some time on business.

Herman Stokes of West Salem, has moved to the North side where he lived several years ago.

Engineer David Weida of the Burlington road, is ill at his home on Clinton street.

A large audience attended the Echo dance in the Union hall last evening.

DEVELOPING BUST AND CHEST

Deep breathing helps greatly in developing the chest. Every morning, upon arising, lie on your back, resting your arms at your sides, and breathe deeply, in and out, three times a day. Take a glass of cold water, avoid all drinks containing acids, and within a month the bust measure will have increased to the extent of several inches. Mlle. DAN ROBY MAKES HIT AT FREEPORT

The following mention of one of La Crosse's well known comedians appeared in the Freeport Daily Journal of the 30th inst., and which will be read with interest by his friends here: "At the Empire this week there is an unusually good attraction, and the large attendance which gathers at each performance appears to thoroughly enjoy the entertainment given them. Dan Roby, the black face funny man, who makes a noise like a trombone, fails to satisfy the people in but one respect, and that is he does not stay before them long enough. His acts are original, his stories witty, and his songs new. He is different from the usual run of black face comedians in that he does not attempt to get himself up in the most grotesque manner possible, and this alone is a relief."

The B. P. O. Elks hold a regular session this evening at which important business matters will be discussed.

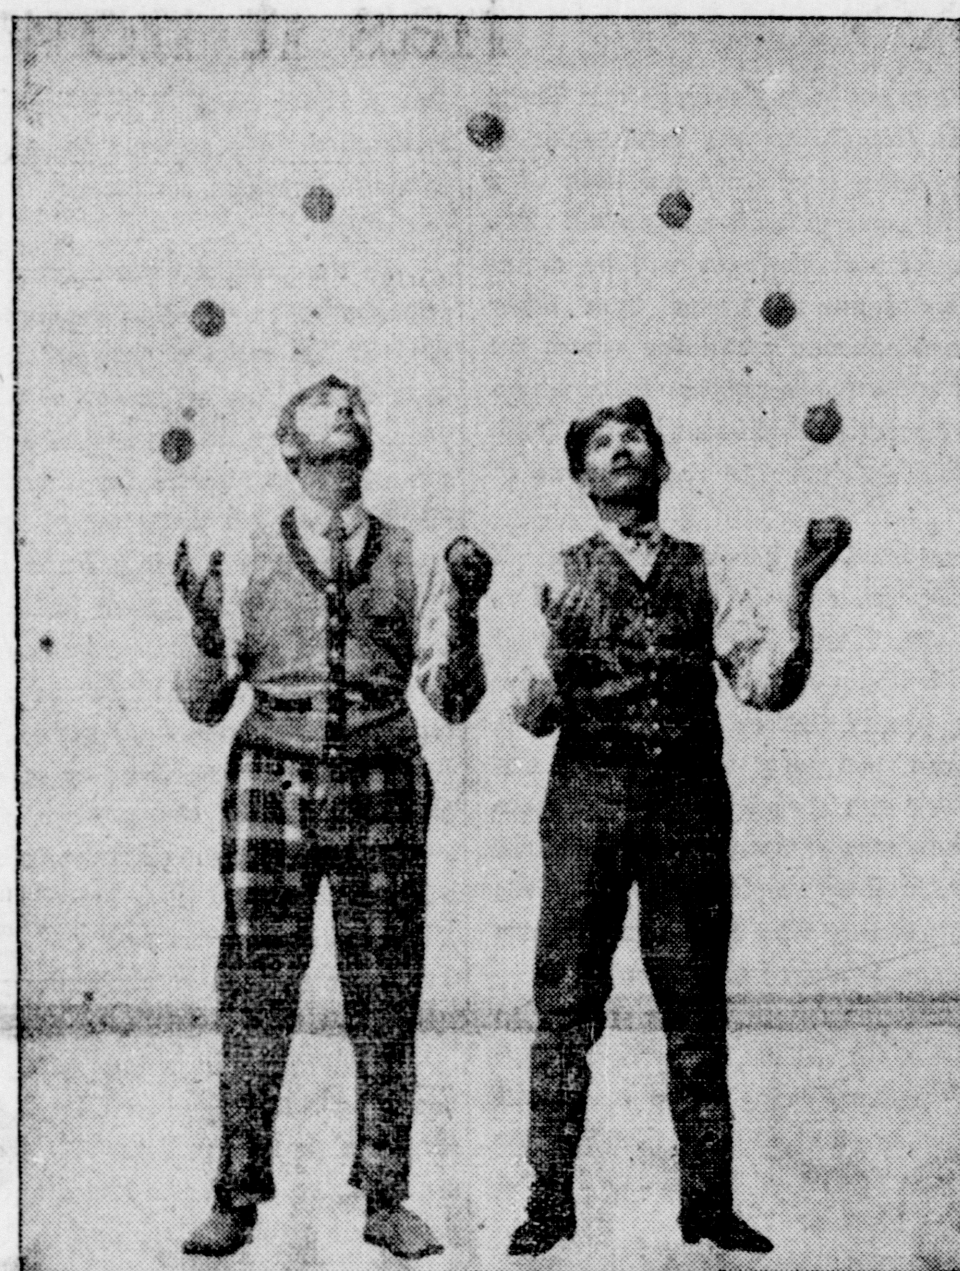

PRESTON FARMER SLAYS A CANADIAN LYNX

Olaf Skrukud of Holt township, near Preston, Minn., brought to Preston the skin of a Canadian lynx which he caught in a trap set for a fox. Skrukud tried to kill the animal with a club and ended by having to fight for his own safety. He succeeded in getting his gun and one shot between the eyes settled the fray. The animal was as large as a shepherd dog and the first one seen in Fillmore county in twenty-five years.

THE MAN OUTSIDE PLEASES PLAY

The Dalrymple Comedy company resumed its engagement last night with "The Man Outside." Mr. Dalrymple took the title role in a praiseworthy manner and met the requirements in a very clever way. Miss Griffin has not a strong part in this play, but again proved herself a leading lady worthy of strong featuring. When it came time to hand in the name of the murderer of Constance Craig no one was able to do so. It was a strong detective play well acted by a clever company.

Tonight they present their feature bill, "The Runaway Tramp." It is said to be their strongest play. The following is taken from the Winona Independent:

"The Dalrymple Comedy company greatly pleased its audience last night with 'The Runaway Tramp.' It was as represented, a bill devoid of 'horse-play' and yet the comedy was exceedingly strong, the scenes were all good some exciting, but quite different from most tramp plays."

the noon recess.

State Superintendent Cary believes that school property should be protected and that the pupils should conduct themselves with decorum during the short release from their daily grind. He rules that if the school board desires it may require teachers to carry their lunches.

Must Carry Lunch

Mr. Cary's opinion says: "The district school board has authority to make a rule requiring the teacher to carry her lunch with her to school and remain in or about the school house or grounds during the noon hour if the children of the district during that hour play through the school house, injuring the furniture and the school building and create unusual disturbances generally."

School on Election Day

General election day is not a legal holiday for schools, but primary election day is. Superintendent Cary has rendered a decision in reply to numerous inquiries and quotes from the statutes as follows:

"Twenty days of teaching shall constitute a school month unless it is otherwise specified in the contract and all legal holidays, except the day of any general election occurring on school days shall be counted although no school be taught."

Primary Legal Holiday

No opinion was given on the primary election, but chapter 451, laws of 1903, contains the following specific statement:

"Every day on which a September primary shall be held shall be a legal holiday."

When Women Can Vote

In relation to the rights of women to vote at school meetings Superintendent Cary says:

"A woman who has in conformity to law become a full citizen of the United States does not lose her citizenship and her consequent right to vote at school district meetings by marrying a foreigner."

VOTE FOR GOOD MEN

(R. B. Gelatt in Leader-Press Oct. 28, 1904.)

"THE CITIZEN SHOULD DIVEST HIMSELF OF PARTISAN BIAS SO FAR AS HE IS ABLE AND VOTE FOR COUNTY OFFICERS ON THE GROUNDS OF THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THE CANDIDATES FOR THOSE OFFICES. THE MORAL STANDING, THE HABITS, SUCCESS OR FAILURE he has shown in his own business and the SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS for the office sought ought to be weighed in the case of each candidate. This takes time but it is no light matter to assist in the selection of public officers and EVERY CITIZEN OWES IT TO THE PUBLIC TO DO IT INTELLIGENTLY."

THE LAST WORD

So far as the making of votes is concerned, the campaign of 1906 is done. The situation has been pretty well treshed over, and what remains to be said will not find many undecided voters to whom to make appeal. The lines are drawn, the army of the voters is ready for the battle of the ballots.

The Tribune's work is finished. It has not been pleasant work. There has been no politics in it. This paper is friendly to the candidacies of men of both parties. In some cases opposing candidates are both of a character to so well commend them as to make difficult a selection. The public feels this, and in those cases the normal averages will be maintained. In other cases particular men stand out as better than other good men, and in those instances we have taken a stand for whom we considered preferable. It has been our endeavor to support those whom we regard as the better men with even-tempered kindness, giving offense to none and expressing our views with due deference to the opinions of others.

In one case only has The Tribune resorted to heroic measures. It was not politics; it was not friendship. It was duty to ourselves and to the public that prompted us in dealing with Harry Palmer in a drastic manner. We knew what all intimate with about-town affairs know, that his election was the most undesirable possibility that ever confronted the voters of La Crosse county. We knew that the party under whose flag he has chosen to run is numerically strong and that if party lines were adhered to he would win. We knew the tendency of voters to vote straight tickets unless impressed with some bounden duty to do otherwise. We knew there are hundreds of people in this county who did not know how offensive to public morality are the life and habits of this man.

We determined to make a fight for good government. We decided to shirk nothing, to acquaint every voter in La Crosse county with the full significance of this man's candidacy. We determined that no man shall be able to fold his arms the day after election and say, "I didn't know it was loaded." We concluded that no man shall vote for Harry Palmer without assuming the full responsibility for his act.

So The Tribune assumed a most distasteful task. It did its work with conscientious completeness. It exposed itself to a thousand libel suits if its expose was false. It bared to public gaze a character accurate discussion of which was a delicate matter. It charged moral corruption and utter incompetence in unminced terms. It was not an enjoyable task. Men, nor papers, lightly attack the vicious and dangerous class. The cost was reckoned, and the task undertaken. Vengeance, even crime, was invited from retaliating thuggery. Murderous assault, long threatened, was consummated as punishment for the man who, as president of this company, bore the brunt of responsibility for the telling of plain, sad truths. That may not be the end. Further violence is openly threatened against the publishers of The Tribune by men who, charged with all manner of viciousness, have been unable to deny one charge or to answer one argument, but who while seeking the throne of law and order have set the law at naught and boasted of violence most cruel and disgusting.

All these things were anticipated. The publishers of The Tribune knew they were inviting dangerous men to conflict in resentment of honest journalistic effort. This paper has done its duty. It has told the truth at all hazards. It has not told the whole truth, because decency prohibited the publication of shocking details, but it has told nothing but the truth. It has exposed the facts. Now, if the majority of the people of this county want to smother conscience and elect to office a man of whom things have been said and not denied the unchallenged saying of which should invite divorce suits and social and political ostracism—if the majority after all this want Harry Palmer for sheriff, they will have him. We are not trying to reform La Crosse county, we are trying to protect it against unknowingly electing to high office a very improper person. If, after hearing the undisputed facts, the people desire to elect this man we have nothing to say.

The Tribune bears Harry Palmer no malice. No word we have said that cut his friends and relatives was said to cause pain. All was said on the theory that we must work for the greatest good to the greatest number. Having lived a life of infamy, a man need not complain if he is made to suffer the sting of sin in order that thousands of innocent people may not suffer through ignorance of his career.

We challenge one word of denial of anything we have said. We offered the columns of this paper to any who cared to make a defense with the single condition that he who made the defense must sign his name to a published statement that he intended to vote for Harry Palmer. None accepted the offer. In all the Palmer supporters was there no man who was not ashamed to say he was for Palmer? In all the sweeping charges we have made was there none that any man in the whole city could deny? In all our acrimonious assertions scattered broadcast over this county was there none that invited a libel suit? No, none! They are all true! And will you elect this man as sheriff against whom every form of moral turpitude can be charged and he be powerless to palliate or deny?

The campaign is over. The work is done. The facts are known. We have closed our case in the great court of public opinion.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY

The pastors of La Crosse are wont to break out once in about so often, like the measles, in a "purity crusade." Then, they raise their voices against

WING REPUDIATES PALMER

Frank B. Gesler, Esq.

Dear Gesler:

I want to commend the stand you and Trimbel of West Salem have taken on the candidate for sheriff.

There is no party obligation so strong as the MORAL OBLIGATION TO REFUSE TO VOTE FOR A CANDIDATE ON YOUR TICKET IF YOU KNOW HE IS INTELLECTUALLY AND MORALLY UNFIT FOR ANY OFFICE TO WHICH HE ASPIRES; and when he has secured the nomination by soliciting democrats to vote in republican caucuses, it is more than ever IMPORTANT TO TEACH A LESSON THAT WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN BY FUTURE CANDIDATES.

The republican candidate expects to get enough democratic votes to elect him, as he did to nominate him, but if the decent republicans of La Crosse county do their duty, there will not be democrats enough—of HIS kind—to do any harm.

Yours truly,

E. M. WING.

A. J. PHILIPS, REPUBLICAN, AGAINST PALMER

West Salem, Wis., Oct. 3, 1906.

Dear Mr. Gesler:

I desire to congratulate you on your stand on the sheriff question. Let the Chronicle howl. YOU VOICE THE SENTIMENT OF THE BETTER CLASS of voters.

Stick to it, for YOU ARE RIGHT. Have your paper independent in reality as well as name.

Yours truly,

A. J. PHILIPS.

vice. The wickedness that is in men gets a splendid trimming down.

That is all right. It is what they are expected to do. There is always enough ground for it, and those of them who are sincere do good. But in those crusades it is sin in the abstract, vice in bulk as it were, that is assailed. No courage is essential. No personal encounter, no embarrassing situations are faced. They simply throw epithets into a sargasso sea of sin.

In the present county campaign the worthy pastors of La Crosse had opportunity to do some real good. They had a fixed target at which to fire. If "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," they could have exerted many ounces of prevention of something which, during two years to come, no pounds of cure can cure. They know the truth about one of the candidates for sheriff. They know he is the embodiment of all that they are presumed to fight down. How many of them had the courage to rise in God's house and assail him from the pulpit? How many of them have dared ignore politics and, casting aside selfish discretion, fire batteries of truth at a moral corruptionist seeking high public office? TWO! Just TWO, as far as we can learn. Why not the others? Some republicans in "our congregation?" Afraid of the cars?

Probably! For these or some other equally vain reasons the pulpit has not accepted the greatest chance it has ever had to do some real, tangible, down-here-on-earth work. A little straight-from-the-shoulder talk on this subject would have outweighed all the glittering generalities within the scope of religious oratory.

Don't do it now! It is too late. The campaign is over, and beside, coming at the close of a great fight, with the battle already won or lost, it would not have the convincing force of sincerity. We do not mention it because we feel aggrieved, for it is what the world has learned to expect from the modern pulpit. We have merely called attention to the facts as a conclusive answer to the oft propounded question of that fearless and persistent worker Reverend J. W. Irish, "Why do not men go to church?"

SUGGESTED TESTIMONIALS TO PALMER BY REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN SPEAKERS

There are some things the republican campaign managers and speakers have not said about Harry Palmer. They are supporting Palmer for the honorable office of sheriff. They have heard it charged that Palmer is unfit—so unfit that to tell how unfit would require language unfit to print. They must believe these charges are false, else as honorable men they could not support him. They are very busy this fall, and we want to help them, so we have decided to write for each of them a paragraph which they may use in their speeches or cause to be printed in interviews in the newspapers. (The Tribune space is at their service for that purpose.) We suggest the following:

Chairman J. E. McConnell: "Harry Palmer is just as good as I am. I would welcome him into my social set. He is clean, competent and honorable. I am proud that he heads the republican county ticket."

Attorney James Thompson: "The charges made against Harry Palmer are untrue. He is irreproachable in character, socially clean and every inch a republican. His record in the city council has been one of activity profitable to the city. Personally I am fond of his society, and I like to be known as one of his pals."

John M. Holley: "When teaching my Sunday school class I often stop to think how pleased I would be if I could rest assured that all my pupils would grow up to be honorable young men like Harry Palmer. I often point him out as an example to them, urging them to follow in his footsteps. I honor and respect him and I hope you will make him sheriff, because he is in every way fitted for the office."

Judge Kleber: "Harry Palmer is an old friend of mine. I have been intimately acquainted with his daily life for years and I feel that I am a better man for having associated with him. As sheriff he will afford a splendid example for the young men of La Crosse county. Particularly in those delicate cases in which some youth is at the brink of a criminal life will the moral influence of Palmer be exerted to advantage in steering him away from danger and back to paths of honesty."

Frank Winter: "As a follower of reform politics, I should indeed be inconsistent were I to neglect this opportunity to say a good word for Harry Palmer. We naturally select our best material to head our ticket, and it gives me pleasure to assure you that Harry Palmer is the best man the republican party of La Crosse county could produce. His manliness and morality give caste to the ticket. His influence will help elect the other candidates, all of whom are fortunate in being thus associated with so distinguished an example of good citizenship. With this admirable candidate at the head of the republican county ticket, there need be no misgivings about Bosshard, Rawlinson and the other minor candidates pulling through."

It has always been a great puzzle to us how men—Christian men, upright, clean, noble and fair-dealing—can chloroform their conscience and vote for notoriously unclean and unfit men to "keep up the party organization" when the party organization would be all the stronger for the defeat and political extinction of such unworthy candidates.—Bangor Independent.

JUST LIFE

Unpardonable Extravagance

H. Rippe and wife spent last Thursday at La Crosse.—New Albin (Ia.) News.

There's always a crook to start the "knocker" cry when the fifth he feeds on is uncovered.

Anyway, nobody has been mean enough to tell how Harry directed the orchestra at those "hard times" dances.

Wherever Will Goes

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young of Lansing, spent last week with relatives on the Bench. Will spent the threshing season up north this fall, having just returned home. He told us that while there he went out one day and shot twenty-four ducks and four geese. But the best shot he made was here in Iowa on the Bench, killing three squirrels at one shot. We presume likely the lively little fellows were all in the same tree, although he didn't inform us as to that.—Lansing Journal.

No Joke, Either

Having heard no threats of violence against himself, individually, it might be wise for us to refrain from comment upon the sheriff campaign. However, we cannot refrain from warning citizens against making a pun of the fact that Harry will provide for "Baldie" if elected.

Advertising and Steam

We try to maintain originality in the ideas in "this here column of stuff," even though they be poor, and generally we succeed. Occasionally, however, we run across an idea we think is better than any we can muster. On this theory we herewith produce a strong sentence which we noticed somewhere the other day, and happened to remember:

"The merchant who cuts down his advertising when business is good, is like an engineer who shuts off steam when his locomotive gets to moving."

Good logic.

Yes, sympathy is a wonderful thing. Some people sympathized with Czolgosz, McKinley's assassin.

And trust a political candidate of the unfit stripe to court all the sympathy that's around loose.

The Festive Candidate

(From Lansing (Ia.) Journal.) Mr. McLaughlin, democratic candidate for supervisor, was in town Monday interviewing the voters. His opponent, Mr. Quandahl, has not shown up as yet.

County Auditor Ruth was hand-shaking in town Tuesday of last week.

John G. Schimming, republican candidate for clerk, was around town a couple days last week.

J. E. Mills, republican candidate for county superintendent, was in our city last week.

Tim Collins, democratic nominee for recorder, was shaking hands hereabouts recently.

Roadmaster Joe Reeder was repairing our highways last week before cold weather sets in.

A. M. May and W. W. Bulman spoke on Friday evening at the Bench schoolhouse on the political issues of the day. A full house was present. Both gentlemen are able speakers.

It is to be presumed from current threats that Editor Gesler, won't dare venture out of his Bangor office after election.

DANGERS FROM DYSPEPSIA

Imperfect Digestion Most Prolific Cause of Serious Disease.

Few people seem to realize the real dangers in disturbed, deficient or defective digestion.

While health reports do not give indigestion as a cause of death, yet it is in reality often fatal, as it so weakens the stomach that one becomes readily susceptible to an attack of typhoid fever, kidney disease, nervous prostration or other serious or fatal disease.

At the first symptoms of indigestion, Mi-o-na stomach tablets should be used. If there is a feeling of heaviness in the stomach, distress after eating, nervousness, dizziness, nausea, headaches, sleeplessness, pains in the side and limbs, specks before the eyes, or a peevish, irritable condition, with debility and weakness, begin the use of Mi-o-na at once.

It will build up the stomach and digestive organs so that you can eat anything at any time without fear of distress or indigestion.

A 50-cent box of Mi-o-na tablets will, in most cases, give prompt relief and cure, although in chronic and long-standing weakness of the stomach, two boxes or more are sometimes needed, but O. T. Erhart guarantees Mi-o-na will cure, in all cases, no matter how chronic or serious, or money will be refunded. You run no risk whatever in buying Mi-o-na.

THANKSGIVING DINNER TO COST MONEY

The housewife will tackle an expensive proposition this year when she sets out to prepare the annual turkey dinner with the usual main attraction and trimmings. Everything is going to come high, including the turkey, which has also been included in the luxury class and probably will be relegated to the memories of other years, while a substantial chicken will occupy the post of honor.

But worst of all is the news that the standard decoration, cranberry sauce, will be so expensive that only three cranberries will be served to a dish. The reason is that somebody in the east has effected a cranberry corner and is now waxing prosperous as the result of his enterprise. The crop this year is a good one, both as to quantity and quality, and were it not for the corner the old dish would be with us again almost for the asking.

As it is, however, cranberries will fly as high as do the ducks on a clear day and it will take a long-range purse to bring them down. At present the sauce in the raw state is selling for $8.50 a barrel, with every indication of going up as the season advances. From reports it would seem as though the berries will be selling for $10 about Thanksgiving and the local dealers say they would not be surprised to see the tempting red dish traded in barrels for $15 by Christmas. At $10 a barrel cranberries would cost the consumer about 10 cents a quart and if the price per barrel reaches $15 the hungry public will be obliged to pay 15 cents for a quart of sauce.

Apple Crop Good

The high prices being demanded for cranberries come as a hard blow after last year's skyrocket demands, and especially as the apple crop this year, always an important factor in cranberry prices, is unusually fine, and with the excellent berry yield of the season there was apparently no reason why cranberries could not be purchased at prices at least nearly reasonable. A year ago, owing to a poor crop both of cranberries and apples, the sauce sold at extreme prices, reaching as high as $20 a barrel, while in the east many barrels sold for $25.

And right on top of the cranberry tale of woe comes the news that pumpkins, used as inside decorations for tempting pies, will be higher this year than they were last. The bright yellow fruit is now selling for 50 and 60 cents a dozen, which means that one pumpkin will sell to the consumer at 10 cents. This is not so bad, but in view of the bear stories being sent out the Christmas dinner menu will appear something like this:

Crabapple Cocktail
Green Apple Soup
Apple Patties
Roast Apple with Apple Sauce
Stuffed Young Apple
Apple Salad
Apple Pie

I AM GOING

To tell you something interesting now. For years I've been harping about Gray's Verba Santa being the greatest, the most wonderful, and the quickest cough cure known, haven't I? Well it was done in good faith, based on observation of thousands of cases during that time, and on reports of the users, that they had never seen its equal, that it resembled a charm, and that they could not be induced to experiment with other cough cures again. Can you blame me for being enthusiastic about Gray's Verba Santa, and constantly trying to get you to use it for your cough? And ain't I trying to help and benefit you thereby? And ain't I guaranteeing it? You can't risk a cent in trying either a 50c or $1.00 bottle! CHAS. BEYSCHLAG, DRUGGIST, 503 MAIN ST.

NOVEMBER WILL BE BLEAK AND COLD

Bleak, chilly and zero weather may be expected in La Crosse during November according to the data of the month kept for the last thirty-four years. Weather Forecaster Oberholzer has issued a summary of November conditions.

While the average temperature of November has been 34 degrees, just over the freezing point, the coldest weather was 21 degrees below zero on Nov. 29, 1875, and the warmest November days the 21st in 1893 and the 20th in 1897, on which the thermometer registered a maximum of 72 degrees. The warmest month was that of 1899 with an average temperature of 42 degrees and the coldest was that of 1880 with an average of 25 degrees.

On an average, the month has eight days on which the precipitation exceeds .01 of an inch. The average precipitation for November is 1.47 inches, while the greatest precipitation was 4.36 inches in 1879 and the least .04 of an inch in 1903. These figures show that the month, compared with other months of the year, is a dry one.

The greatest precipitation in twenty-four consecutive hours was 1.74 inches on Nov. 10, 1880, and the greatest snowfall on any one day was 6.6 inches on Nov. 25, 1895.

On the average, there are seven clear days, eleven partly cloudy and twelve cloudy.

Despite the general bleak aspect of La Crosse Novembers, it is a strange fact that the prevailing winds are southerly. That, however, is not saying they are balmy breezes, nor that they blow all the time from that direction. The old settler will tell about nor'westers.

The average velocity of the wind is 7.4 miles an hour. The most severe wind storm recorded in November was on Nov. 9, 1887, when the wind blew forty-five miles an hour from the northwest.

BOARD MUST MEET UNLUCKY "13TH"

If members of the county board of supervisors are superstitious, that body may not convene on Nov. 13 as required by the Wisconsin statutes. Of course, the board may meet, and then adjourn to a later date to begin the transaction of business, if any member so desires.

County Clerk Rawlinson looked up the law yesterday. "The first Tuesday succeeding the second Monday," said the county clerk, gazing at the calendar. "That's the first Tuesday after the second Monday."

"One Monday" pointing to Nov. 5. "Two Mondays" pointing to Nov. 12. "There it is, Tuesday, Nov. 13. That's a bad day." With this the county clerk remained mum.

Friday on the 13th of the month generally has been regarded as a bad day for beginning any new work, but the county board may delegate any Tuesday on the thirteenth of a month as another day of ill omen.

The action of the county board remains to be seen, but the body probably will meet, disregarding the bad sign, and hoping to overcome any ill luck which may befall it.

GREAT DINNER BY HENRY EINERT

SATURDAY, ALL DAY AND EVENING, AT OPENING OF NEW BAR

Excellent appointed, artistically decorated, the remodeled saloon of Henry Einert, 1029 South Fourth street, will be opened to the public next Saturday in a house-warming the like of which is not often seen in La Crosse.

The magnificence that marks the hospitality of his countrymen will characterize the opening of the new quarters. There will be refreshments all day Saturday and until Saturday night at 12 o'clock. It won't be a "lunch." It will be an every-hour banquet such as a caterer of Mr. Einert's capacity can be depended upon to provide. There will be roast pig, young and tender, chicken, ducks and geese. There will be all that goes to make these things as delightful as possible. The evening in particular will be replete with enjoyable features.

This swell entertainment is given in honor of the completion of Mr. Einert's new barroom. It is a splendid affair, bars of mahogany and walnut, heaviest French plate mirrors, bur-lapped walls over a cherry wainscoting, a fine painting in water colors back of it all. Large, airy and attractive, it affords one of the most delightful resorts in the city.

It Only Takes Five Subscriptions to Secure the Extra Ballot

Some of the Features of the Famous
Seaside Resort--Bathing, Boating
and Fishing

Contestants should not fail to take advantage of the special offer to increase their reserve votes.

5000 extra votes will be given to each and every contestant who turns in five new, twelve-month subscriptions to The Tribune between now and Saturday, November 10, 1906.

2000 extra ballots will be given to each and every contestant who turns in five new six-months subscriptions to The Tribune.

This offer affords each and every contestant the greatest chance to secure extra votes and at the same time catch the leaders.

This offer will not be repeated. Each day sees the interest in the Tribune's great $3000 popular voting contest increasing. Candidates both in and outside of La Crosse are putting forth every effort to win one of The Tribune's valuable prizes. The appearance of your name in the list published means that you have friends who desire to see you win some of the prizes. Your failure to take advantage of this splendid opportunity would be a disappointment to them. You can win one of the prizes if you desire. Pledge your territory and by utilizing all your leisure time you can easily be a winner.

If your name has not been published in any of the above lists, write to the contest manager at once and he will inform you what to do. Now nominations will be received at any time.

The secret of all success is in grasping the opportunity for securing one of the costly prizes may never occur again.

S.S.S. — EXPELS — BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skins, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is filled are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands, and the skin is kept in a feverish, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood or prevent the outflow of poisons and acids; only constitutional treatment can do this. The countless washes, salves, lotions, etc., that are used cannot reach the humor-laden blood and are, therefore, useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood, which is the cause of the trouble, must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements to neutralize and remove the poison and restores this vital fluid to its natural state of purity. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid matter on the skin it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

BRYAN ENDORSES DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES IN WISCONSIN

"You allow predatory wealth not only to plunder the people but you allow it to demoralize those who were its beneficiaries. They have debauched politics, they have corrupted business. Will you help us now to apply this remedy? You have a chance in the election of our democratic friends to congress, and you have a chance in the election of our state ticket, from Mr. Aylward down; and I have come here to ask you if you in Wisconsin will help us now to start this reform which we hope to complete two years from now, when we will make this government again a government of the people, by the people, and for the people."—Bryan's speech at Milwaukee, October 17, 1906.

You will have to look long and far to find a totally uninteresting advertisement—or one that will not, in some manner, repay the reader.

AYLWARD'S CANYASS

Mr. Aylward is making a strong campaign in behalf of his party. He is going about the state speaking two and three times daily, and the reports of his meeting show a large attendance. M. L. Luck, candidate for attorney general, a fine speaker, is also doing effective work, and there are others.

One development of the campaign is that all democrats will this fall vote the democrat ticket. The democrat party has built a platform upon which all democrats can stand and work with enthusiasm, a platform which insures a united harmonious party.

Guesses are made as to what La Follette republicans will do on election day. They have three courses open to them. They can vote for the ticket labeled republican, but not republican as they understand the term, or they can vote the democratic ticket, or they can stay at home and not vote at all.

Mr. Aylward is showing conclusively that to vote for the Connor ticket is to vote to put the stalwarts in power again, and the only way to prevent this is to defeat the Connor crowd by voting the democratic ticket.

Much depends on the independent vote this election, as has been the case in many elections that have gone before.

NEW ZEALAND EXHIBITION

(Tribune Special Service.)

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Nov. 1.—The great international New Zealand exhibition, on which the government has spent large sums, was formally opened at Christ church today. All parts of the British empire, including the Dominion of Canada, are well represented at the exhibition. One of the interesting displays is the Maori section, illustrating the life, habits and industries of the aborigines. Another striking feature is the display of fine native woods that New Zealand is just beginning to exploit. The exhibition will continue six months and is expected to draw visitors from all parts of the world.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

(Special Tribune Service.)

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 1.—The Alpha Chi Omega sorority began its national convention in Greencastle today as the guest of the De Pauw university chapter. Delegates are in attendance from Pomona College, Northwestern University, University of Michigan, University of Wisconsin, Albion College, University of Illinois, and several other colleges in various parts of the country. The convention is to continue in session three days.

FORESTALLING ELECTION

(Tribune Special Service.)

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 1.—The Public Service Corporation which controls all the trolley lines, electric light and gas plants in northern New Jersey, today put into effect reduced car rates over a large part of its system. Announcement is made that marked reductions in the price of electric lighting and gas are also contemplated. This move on the part of the corporation is believed to have been influenced by the fact that at next week's elections a number of municipalities are to vote on the question of building their own lighting plants.

REDUCED RAILROAD RATES

(Special Tribune Service.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 1.—The Central Passenger association today put into effect a 2½ cent rate in all its territory east of Illinois, in which the state legislatures have not already made a maximum rate of 2 cents. The new schedule reduces the local rates only in Indiana and western Pennsylvania, as Michigan and Ohio have 2-cent fare laws, but it involves a lowering of all interstate passenger rates north of the Ohio river and west of Syracuse, N. Y. The change involves a loss of many hundreds of thousands of dollars' revenue yearly to the railroads unless it shall cause a heavy increase in traffic, and traffic officials doubt if the reduction is sufficient to have that effect. They assert that a further reduction to 2 cents would make it necessary to recoup their losses by largely discontinuing excursions.

MICHIGAN ENDEAVORERS

(Tribune Special Service.)

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 1.—The capital city of Michigan is in the hands of the Christian Endeavorers. Delegates to the biennial state convention have been arriving throughout the day, and the indications are that the attendance will eclipse that at any previous convention. The city is in gala attire in honor of the guests, the decorations being elaborate on both business houses and residences. The largest delegations are from Detroit, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Jackson. Other cities throughout the state, however, are well represented. The

Help Those Who Are Helping You

There is nothing that helps a town prosper like buying the goods it manufactures.

There are represented herewith some of our most prosperous and best manufacturers of commodities—goods that are of the highest grade.

La Crosse has made wonderful strides of progress in five years. It is chiefly because the "trade at home motto" has imbued the people. Our citizens have scoffed at the highly colored and luring advertisements of the mail order grafters, which kept La Crosse in the ranks of the villages for decades, and have wisely determined to support home manufacturers—the people who support them.

ing was opened by the borough council in Battersea. It is fitted up for billiards, bagatelle, chess, draughts and other games. The cost of the building and its maintenance will come out of the rates. Poplar, the most rate-ridden district of London, is another glaring example of the ineffectiveness of municipal trading. Despite its rate of twelve shillings in the pound the district owes $2,650,000. Sixteen years ago the borough's indebtedness was only $208,415. This virtual state of bankruptcy has been brought about by the borough's erection of handsome baths, libraries and other public institutions including appropriately enough a magnificent workhouse.

ECUADOR'S NEW TARIFF

(Tribune Special Service.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—Ecuador's new tariff schedule, which goes into effect today, provides for a complete classification and makes reduction on some classes of goods sent from the United States to Ecuador. No marked alterations on the chief exports from the United States to Ecuador are to be noted, however. There is no change in duty on flour and lard, which are the chief American exports to the southern republic.

IA. TEACHERS' MEET

(Tribune Special Service.)
ATLANTA, Iowa, Nov. 1.—Throughout the day members of the Southeastern Iowa Teachers' association have been arriving for their annual meeting, which opens tonight, to continue until the end of the week. All indications point to an unusually interesting and profitable meeting. The Methodist church has been prepared for the sessions, which open with the annual address of the president, Superintendent J. H. Beveridge of Missouri Valley. President H. H. Searley of the State Normal School, President A. B. Storms of Iowa State College, Dr. E. A. Steiner of Iowa College, Dr. Nathaniel Butler of the University of Chicago, State Superintendent John F. Riggs, and a number of other prominent educators are on the program.

FASHION PARAGRAPHS FROM NEW YORK

(Tribune Special Service.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Striped materials of all kinds are much in evidence. Sheer goods, chiffon, voile and gauzes of all descriptions are to be worn right through the winter, so that a handsome afternoon gown purchased at this time of the year is sure to prove a good investment.

The handsomest, that is, the most elaborate, dresses now made up are of striped chiffon, black and white being the most popular and the width of the stripe carrying from an almost indefinite line to a full inch band. Naturally the width of the stripe must depend to a great extent upon the size of the wearer—to a woman of petite build a narrow line is generally becoming, while a stout figure can carry off effectively a more conspicuous design. So far black and white, or gray and white are more popular than white and colored stripes but in pale blue and in red and white some charmingly pretty costumes have already been made up.

The black and white striped material should be made up over white silk or pale gray. Black would not be at all attractive. In the colors also, white is the best, although a pale blue of the shade of itself is often attractive. Silk, of course, can be made up over any lining, although the gown can be lightened or rendered darker in tone according to the shade of the underling.

Even in the heavy street suits striped flannels and cloths prevail to no small extent, and in fact, in all textures that were of a check or plaid stripes have appeared. Naturally only the rough suits for walking or golf would be made up of striped cloth, although many of the handsomest suits for the coming winter will be striped velvet, velveteen and all velvet textures.

Any fancy texture needs clever handling in making up, and a striped material is no exception to the rule. With chiffons and voile care must be taken that there are not too many cross straps of trimming to cut the figure. The end of the skirt may always be trimmed with ruchings and narrow ruffles of the material, and these may be carried as far up on the skirt as the figure will allow. The waist also will be sufficiently trimmed with a yoke and a vest of handsome lace, bordered with a piping pale blue and white chiffon. Three-quarter or short sleeves are alone fashionable for an afternoon gown, so that the full chiffon puff can be attractively finished off at the elbow with soft ruching of the material, combined with lace.

It is a great temptation nowadays with any light flimsy texture to attempt the empire. As a rule, however, a princess gown is infinitely

About the Eyes

Your eyes are subject to as many different defects as the body is to deformities, whereas it should be one of the most perfect of the body.

In civilized countries or especially in even primarily educated countries, 999 people out of 1000 wear glasses some time in life. It is natural that you should need glasses for reading, writing, sewing and other close work between the ages of 40 and 45 years. A perfect eye should need glasses at this age to relieve them from strain when being used for near work. Many young people need glasses early in life to relieve the various forms of eye strain which is the cause of 75 per cent. of all headaches. Just think it has been proven by eminent authorities that three people out of four that have headaches, have defective eyes, and glasses are the remedy, because they CORRECT the DEFECTS when perfectly fitted and there is no eyestrain.

When you get tired to be relieved of these headaches and make sewing, reading and all near work comfortable and easy, call and have me fit you with glasses that I guarantee will give perfect satisfaction or no charge.

MUNICIPAL TRADE IS COSTLY

(Tribune Special Service.)
LONDON, Nov. 1.—The municipal elections in London were held today. Incomplete returns point to a victory and continuance of power for the progressives, notwithstanding the fact that the campaign against them this year has been more bitter than ever before. Recent developments indicate unmistakably that there is a growing demand for municipal reform, but evidently the people have not yet been aroused sufficiently to oust the so-called progressive party.

It is a matter of common knowledge that in every borough where progressives are in power the rates are steadily and rapidly increasing because of lavish and most unreasonable socialistic expenditures. Enormous sums have been spent in the past few years by the progressives for libraries, baths, housing schemes, parks, music, street improvements, street lighting, tram lines and other things so that the average tax rate in London has been increased about 50 per cent since 1890.

The results prove that municipal trading means municipal debt. A recent return shows that the total net debt of London twelve months ago was $516,187,270. Of this tremendous total no less than $241,488,095, or nearly one-half was in respect of tramways, workmen's dwellings, water supply, electric light, and minor so-called "remunerative" undertakings. The taxpayers of London pay close upon four million pounds sterling every year in interest upon and repayment of this debt. An eminent American sociologist has published a volume in which he predicts bankruptcy for London's communal enterprises, and an equally prominent Italian sociologist, who recently visited London, states that the borrowing propensities of the metropolis will sooner or later bring about a crisis.

Glaring examples of wasteful municipal expenditures are to be seen on every hand. But recently a new build-

NEW ZEALAND LETTERS

(Tribune Special Service.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—On and after today, according to an order of the Post Office Department, letters originating in New Zealand and prepaid by postage stamps at the rate of 1 penny, or 2 cents, for each half ounce, are to be delivered to addresses in the United States without the collection of additional postage. Heretofore New Zealand has been obliged to pay 5 cents letter postage on correspondence delivered in the United States, while correspondence carried in the same vessel transported across this country for delivery in Canada or Great Britain has been carried at the rate of 2 cents per each half ounce. The new order is expected to aid in the promotion of closer business relations between New Zealand and the United States.

BERG GOT THE VOTES PLEDGED

Story That is Going the Rounds About Certain Recommendations

The Tribune dated Oct. 30, there appeared an article under the above caption casting reflections derogatory to the honesty of purpose of Mr. Berg and his campaign committee in regard to a certain letter used in his campaign. The story represents that the parties who signed this letter were fooled that they did not know that they were promising Mr. Berg political support—that they thought they were signing a simple letter of recommendation, etc.

This is the letter, it speaks for itself.

On October 22, 1906, to the Voters of the Second Assembly District of La Crosse County: A splendid opportunity is now open to the voters of the above named district to elect a good and true man to the legislature.

Mr. John A. Berg has been duly nominated for this office. It remains now for the voters of this district to vote and give him a handsome majority. He is a prohibitionist to be sure, but a reasonable and sensible man. He stands for civic righteousness and opposes all forms of municipal corruption. He favors and will maintain all measures for the making of good citizenship and that which will protect the home, the school and the state. Mr. Berg is a clean, well informed business man.

Why not lay aside all party affiliations at the coming election and give this well qualified man to the legislature?

We propose to make a strong campaign for his election.

Will you not join us and speak to your friends and neighbors about him? It certainly would be refreshing to have a man represent us who is upright and will attend strictly to business.

Hoping you will give us your vote and influence, we are yours for honest and economical government.

The above letter is signed by men of affairs. Prominent representatives from all parties in the voting precincts of the Second assembly district and it is no compliment to their intelligence to assert that they did not know what they were signing when they signed the above letter.

The last paragraph in the story printed Oct. 30, reads as follows: "Some of the alleged signers of the Berg paper absolutely deny any connection with it today."

The only grain of truth that we can conceive of in the above may be in the fact that in one or two instances a member of a firm signed the firm name instead of his individual name. THE ORIGINAL LETTERS WITH THE SIGNATURES ARE ON FILE.

Mr. Berg is conducting a clean, mainly campaign—open and above

FINAL DIVIDEND PAID

(Tribune Special Service.)
 KEENE, N. H., Nov. 1.—A final dividend in liquidation was paid today to depositors of the Keene Guaranty Savings Bank, which failed in 1894. The final dividend amounted to 64 per cent, making a total of 76 1/2 per cent recovered by the depositors. The Guaranty bank was one of the several New Hampshire banks which went out of existence as the result of the financial difficulties between 1890 and 1897.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

NORTH SIDE SMALL DAMAGE ON NORTH SIDE

The damage done on the North side last evening was slight, but some things were committed which show the miscreants to be very heartless.

One Caledonia street where Wooley & Hanson have been installing the cement corners all the fences were torn away and the fresh cement covered with footsteps.

At 1528 Avon street, the home of James Smith, city water tapper, stones were thrown through the windows, and at the store of P. O. Hanson, half a block south, the windows were also broken.

Nearly all the windows in the business section were besmeared with soap.

SALOON IS SOLD

DAN ROBY MAKES HIT AT FREEPORT

The following mention of one of La Crosse's well known comedians appeared in the Freeport Daily Journal of the 30th inst., and which will be read with interest by his friends here:

"At the Empire this week there is an unusually good attraction, and the large attendance which gathers at each performance appears to thoroughly enjoy the entertainment given them. Dan Roby, the black face funny man, who makes a noise like a trombone, fails to satisfy the people in but one respect, and that is he does not stay before them long enough. His acts are original, his stories witty, and his songs new. He is different from the usual run of black face comedians in that he does not attempt to get himself up in the most grotesque manner possible, and this alone is a relief."

THE MAN OUTSIDE PLEASING PLAY

The Dalrymple Comedy company resumed its engagement last night with "The Man Outside." Mr. Dalrymple took the title role in a praiseworthy manner and met the requirements in a very clever way. Miss Griffin has not a strong part in this play, but again proved herself a leading lady worthy of strong featuring. When it came time to hand in the name of the murderer of Constance Craig no one was able to do so. It was a strong detective play well acted by a clever company.

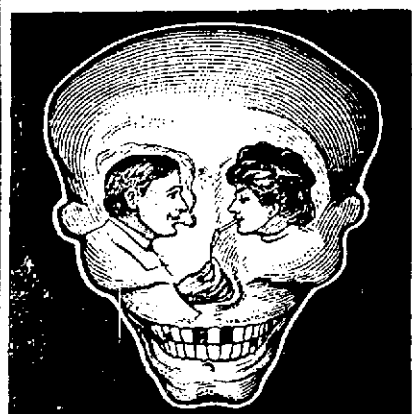

Tonight they present their feature bill, "The Runaway Tramp." It is said to be their strongest play. The following is taken from the Winona Independent:

"The Dalrymple Comedy company greatly pleased its audience last night with 'The Runaway Tramp.' It was as represented, a bill devoid of 'horseplay' and yet the comedy was exceedingly strong, the scenes were all good, some exciting, but quite different from most tramp plays."

VOTE FOR GOOD MEN

(R. B. Gelatt in Leader-Press Oct. 28, 1904.)

"THE CITIZEN SHOULD DIVEST HIMSELF OF PARTISAN BIAS SO FAR AS HE IS ABLE AND VOTE FOR COUNTY OFFICERS ON THE GROUNDS OF THE QUALIFICATIONS OF THE CANDIDATES FOR THOSE OFFICES. THE MORAL STANDING, THE HABITS, SUCCESS OR FAILURE he has shown in his own business and the SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS for the office sought ought to be weighed in the case of each candidate. This takes time but it is no light matter to assist in the selection of public officers and EVERY CITIZEN OWES IT TO THE PUBLIC TO DO IT INTELLIGENTLY."

THE LAST WORD

So far as the making of votes is concerned, the campaign of 1906 is done. The situation has been pretty well treshed over, and what remains to be said will not find many undecided voters to whom to make appeal. The lines are drawn, the army of the voters is ready for the battle of the ballots.

The Tribune's work is finished. It has not been pleasant work. There has been no politics in it. This paper is friendly to the candidacies of men of both parties. In some cases opposing candidates are both of a character to so well commend them as to make difficult a selection. The public feels this, and in those cases the normal averages will be maintained. In other cases particular men stand out as better than other good men, and in those instances we have taken a stand for whom we considered preferable. It has been our endeavor to support those whom we regard as the better men with even-tempered kindness, giving offense to none and expressing our views with due deference to the opinions of others.

In one case only has The Tribune resorted to heroic measures. It was not politics; it was not friendship. It was duty to ourselves and to the public that prompted us in dealing with Harry Palmer in a drastic manner. We knew what all intimates with about-town affairs know, that his election was the most undesirable possibility that ever confronted the voters of La Crosse county. We knew that the party under whose flag he has chosen to run is numerically strong and that if party lines were adhered to he would win. We knew the tendency of voters to vote straight tickets unless impressed with some bounden duty to do otherwise. We knew there are hundreds of people in this county who did not know how offensive to public morality are the life and habits of this man.

We determined to make a fight for good government. We decided to shirk nothing, to acquaint every voter in La Crosse county with the full significance of this man's candidacy. We determined that no man shall be able to fold his arms the day after election and say, "I didn't know it was loaded." We concluded that no man shall vote for Harry Palmer without assuming the full responsibility for his act.

So The Tribune assumed a most distasteful task. It did its work with conscientious completeness. It exposed itself to a thousand libel suits if its expose was false. It bared to public gaze a character accurate discussion of which was a delicate matter. It charged moral corruption and utter incompetence in unminced terms. It was not an enjoyable task. Men, nor papers, lightly attack the vicious and dangerous class. The cost was reckoned, and the task undertaken. Vengeance, even crime, was invited from retaliating thuggery. Murderous assault, long threatened, was consummated as punishment for the man who, as president of this company, bore the brunt of responsibility for the telling of plain, sad truths. That may not be the end. Further violence is openly threatened against the publishers of The Tribune by men who, charged with all manner of viciousness, have been unable to deny one charge or to answer one argument, but who while seeking the throne of law and order have set the law at naught and boasted of violence most cruel and disgusting.

All these things were anticipated. The publishers of The Tribune knew they were inviting dangerous men to conflict in resentment of honest journalistic effort. This paper has done its duty. It has told the truth at all hazards. It has not told the whole truth, because decency prohibited the publication of shocking details, but it has told nothing but the truth. It has exposed the facts. Now, if the majority of the people of this county want a smoother conscience and elect to office a man of whom things have been said and not denied the unchallenged saying of which should invite divorce suits and social and political ostracism—if the majority after all this want Harry Palmer for sheriff, they will have him. We are not trying to reform La Crosse county, we are trying to protect it against unknowingly electing to high office a very improper person. If, after hearing the undisputed facts, the people desire to elect this man we have nothing to say.

The Tribune bears Harry Palmer no malice. No word we have said that cut his friends and relatives was said to cause pain. All was said on the theory that we must work for the greatest good to the greatest number. Having lived a life of infamy, a man need not complain if he is made to suffer the sting of sin in order that thousands of innocent people may not suffer through ignorance of his career.

We challenge one word of denial of anything we have said. We offered the columns of this paper to any who cared to make a defense with the single condition that he who made the defense must sign his name to a published statement that he intended to vote for Harry Palmer. None accepted the offer. In all the Palmer supporters was there no man who was not ashamed to say he was for Palmer? In all the sweeping charges we have made was there none that any man in the whole city could deny? In all our acrimonious assertions scattered broadcast over this county was there none that invited a libel suit? No, none! They are all true! And will you elect this man as sheriff against whom every form of moral turpitude can be charged and he be powerless to palliate or deny? The campaign is over. The work is done. The facts are known. We have closed our case in the great court of public opinion.

A LOST OPPORTUNITY

The pastors of La Crosse are wont to break out once in about so often, like the measles, in a "purity crusade" Then they raise their voices against

WING REPUDIATES PALMER

La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 5, 1906.
Bangor, Wis.Frank B. Gesler, Esq.
Dear Gesler:

I want to commend the stand you and Trimbel of West Salem have taken on the candidate for sheriff.

There is no party obligation so strong as the MORAL OBLIGATION TO REFUSE TO VOTE FOR A CANDIDATE ON YOUR TICKET IF YOU KNOW HE IS INTELLECTUALLY AND MORALLY UNFIT FOR ANY OFFICE TO WHICH HE ASPIRES, and when he has secured the nomination by soliciting democrats to vote in republican caucuses, it is more than ever IMPORTANT TO TEACH A LESSON THAT WILL NOT BE FORGOTTEN BY FUTURE CANDIDATES.

The republican candidate expects to get enough democratic votes to elect him, as he did to nominate him, but if the decent republicans of La Crosse county do their duty, there will not be democrats enough—of HIS kind—to do any harm.

Yours truly,

E. M. WING.

A. J. PHILIPS, REPUBLICAN, AGAINST PALMER

West Salem, Wis., Oct. 3, 1906.

Dear Mr. Gesler:

I desire to congratulate you on your stand on the sheriff question. Let the Chronicle howl. YOU VOICE THE SENTIMENT OF THE BETTER CLASS OF voters.

Stick to it, for YOU ARE RIGHT. Have your paper independent in reality as well as name.

Yours truly,

A. J. PHILIPS.

vice. The wickedness that is in men gets a splendid trimming down.

That is all right. It is what they are expected to do. There is always enough ground for it, and those of them who are sincere do good. But in those crusades it is sin in the abstract, vice in bulk as it were, that is assailed. No courage is essential. No personal encounter, no embarrassing situations are faced. They simply throw epithets into a sargasso sea of sin.

In the present county campaign the worthy pastors of La Crosse had opportunity to do some real good. They had a fixed target at which to fire. If "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," they could have exerted many ounces of prevention of something which, during two years to come, no pounds of cure can cure. They know the truth about one of the candidates for sheriff. They know he is the embodiment of all that they are presumed to fight down. How many of them had the courage to rise in God's house and assail him from the pulpit? How many of them has dared ignore politics and, casting aside selfish discretion, fire batteries of truth at a moral corruptionist seeking high public office? TWO! Just TWO, as far as we can learn. Why not the others? Some republicans in "our congregation?" Afraid of the cars?

Probably! For these or some other equally vain reasons the pulpit has not accepted the greatest chance it has ever had to do some real, tangible, down-here-on-earth work. A little straight-from-the-shoulder talk on this subject would have outweighed all the glittering generalities within the scope of religious oratory.

Don't do it now! It is too late. The campaign is over, and beside, coming at the close of a great fight, with the battle already won or lost, it would not have the convincing force of sincerity. We do not mention it because we feel aggrieved, for it is what the world has learned to expect from the modern pulpit. We have merely called attention to the facts as a conclusive answer to the oft propounded question of that fearless and persistent worker Reverend J. W. Irish, "Why do not men go to church?"

SUGGESTED TESTIMONIALS TO PALMER BY REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN SPEAKERS

There are some things the republican campaign managers and speakers have not said about Harry Palmer. They are supporting Palmer for the honorable office of sheriff. They have heard it charged that Palmer is unfit—so unfit that to tell how unfit would require language unfit to print. They must believe these charges are false, else as honorable men they could not support him. They are very busy this fall, and we want to help them, so we have decided to write for each of them a paragraph which they may use in their speeches or cause to be printed in interviews in the newspapers. (The Tribune space is at their service for that purpose.) We suggest the following:

Chairman J. E. McConnell: "Harry Palmer is just as good as I am. I would welcome him into my social set. He is clean, competent and honorable. I am proud that he heads the republican county ticket."

Attorney James Thompson: "The charges made against Harry Palmer are untrue. He is irreproachable in character, socially clean and every inch a republican. His record in the city council has been one of activity profitable to the city. Personally I am fond of his society, and I like to be known as one of his pals."

John M. Holley: "When teaching my Sunday school class I often stop to think how pleased I would be if I could rest assured that all my pupils would grow up to be honorable young men like Harry Palmer. I often point him out as an example to them, urging them to follow in his footsteps. I honor and respect him and I hope you will make him sheriff, because he is in every way fitted for the office."

Judge Kleeber: "Harry Palmer is an old friend of mine. I have been intimately acquainted with his daily life for years and I feel that I am a better man for having associated with him. As sheriff he will afford a splendid example for the young men of La Crosse county. Particularly in those delicate cases in which some youth is at the brink of a criminal life will the moral influence of Palmer be exerted to advantage in steering him away from danger and back to paths of honesty."

Frank Winter: "As a follower of reform politics, I should indeed be inconsistent were I to neglect this opportunity to say a good word for Harry Palmer. We naturally select our best material to head our ticket, and it gives me pleasure to assure you that Harry Palmer is the best man the republican party of La Crosse county could produce. His manliness and morality give caste to the ticket. His influence will help elect the other candidates, all of whom are fortunate in being thus associated with so distinguished an example of good citizenship. With this admirable candidate at the head of the republican county ticket, there need be no misgivings about Bosshard, Rawlinson and the other minor candidates pulling through."

It has always been a great puzzle to us how men—Christian men, upright, clean, noble and fair-dealing—can chloroform their conscience and vote for notoriously unclean and unfit men to "keep up the party organization" when the party organization would be all the stronger for the defeat and political extinction of such unworthy candidates.—Bangor Independent.

JUST LIFE

Unpardonable Extravagance

If, Rippe and wife spent last Thursday at La Crosse.—New Albin (La.) News.

There's always a crook to start the "knocker" cry when the fifth he feels on is uncovered.

Anyway, nobody has been mean enough to tell how Harry directed the orchestra at those "hard times" dances.

Wherever Will Goes

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young of Lansing, spent last week with relatives on the Bench. Will spent the thrilling season up north this fall, having just returned home. He told us that while there he went out one day and shot twenty-four ducks and four geese. But the best shot he made was here in Iowa on the Bench, killing three squirrels at one shot. We presume likely the lively little fellows were all in the same tree, although he didn't inform us as to that.—Lansing Journal.

No Joke, Either

Having heard no threats of violence against himself, individually, it might be wise for us to refrain from comment upon the sheriff campaign. However, we cannot refrain from warning citizens against making a pun of the fact that Harry will provide for "Baldie" if elected.

Advertising and Steam

We try to maintain originality in the ideas in "this here" column of stuff, even though they be poor, and generally we succeed. Occasionally, however, we run across an idea we think is better than any we can muster. On this theory we herewith produce a strong sentence which we noticed somewhere the other day, and happened to remember:

"The merchant who cuts down his advertising when business is good, is like an engineer who shuts off steam when his locomotive gets to moving." Good logic.

Yes, sympathy is a wonderful thing. Some people sympathized with Czolgosz, McKinley's assassin.

And trust a political candidate of the unit stripe to court all the sympathy that's around loose.

The Festive Candidate

(From Lansing (La.) Journal.) Mr. McLaughlin, democratic candidate for supervisor, was in town Monday interviewing the voters. His opponent, Mr. Quandahl, has not shown up as yet.

County Auditor Rath was hand-shaking in town Tuesday of last week. John G. Schimming, republican candidate for clerk, was around town a couple days last week.

J. E. Mills, republican candidate for county superintendent, was in our city last week.

Tim Collins, democratic nominee for recorder, was shaking hands, hereabouts recently.

Roadmaster Joe Reeder was repairing our highways last week before cold weather sets in.

A. M. May and W. W. Balmain spoke on Friday evening at the Bench schoolhouse on the political issues of the day. A full house was present. Both gentlemen are able speakers.

It is to be presumed from current threats that Editor Gesler, won't dare venture out of his Bangor office after election.

DANGERS FROM DYSPEPSIA

Imperfect Digestion Most Prolific Cause of Serious Disease

Few people seem to realize the real dangers in disturbed, deficient or defective digestion.

While health reports do not give indigestion as a cause of death, yet it is in reality often fatal, as it so weakens the stomach that one becomes readily susceptible to an attack of typhoid fever, kidney disease, nervous prostration or other serious or fatal disease.

At the first symptoms of indigestion, Miso-na stomach tablets should be used. If there is a feeling of heaviness in the stomach, distress after eating, nervousness, dizziness, nausea, headaches, sleeplessness, pains in the side and limbs, specks before the eyes, or a peevish, irritable condition, with debility and weakness, begin the use of Miso-na at once.

It will build up the stomach and digestive organs so that you can eat anything at any time without fear of distress or indigestion.

A 50-cent box of Miso-na tablets will, in most cases, give prompt relief and cure, although in chronic and long-standing weakness of the stomach, two boxes or more are sometimes needed, but O. T. Erhart guarantees Miso-na will cure, in all cases, no matter how chronic or serious, or money will be refunded. You run no risk whatever in buying Miso-na.

THANKSGIVING DINNER TO COST MONEY

The housewife will tackle an expensive proposition this year when she sets out to prepare the annual turkey dinner with the usual main attraction and trimmings. Everything is going to come high, including the turkey, which has also been included in the luxury class and probably will be relegated to the memories of other years, while a substantial chicken will occupy the post of honor.

But worst of all is the news that the standard decoration, cranberry sauce, will be so expensive that only those cranberries will be served to a dish. The reason is that somebody in the east has effected a cranberry corner and is now waxing prosperous as the result of his enterprise. The crop this year is a good one, both as to quantity and quality, and were it not for the corner the old dish would be with us again almost for the asking.

As it is, however, cranberries will fly

as high as do the ducks on a clear day and it will take a long-range parson to bring them down. At present the sauce in the raw state is selling for $8.50 a barrel, with every indication of going up as the season advances. From reports it would seem as though the berries will be selling for $10 about Thanksgiving and the local dealers say they would not be surprised to see the tempting red dish traded in barrels for $15 by Christmas. At $10 a barrel cranberries would cost the consumer about 10 cents a quart and if the price per barrel reaches $15 the hungry public will be obliged to pay 15 cents for a quart of sauce.

Apple Crop Good

The high prices being demanded for cranberries come as a hard blow after last year's skyrocket demands, and especially as the apple crop this year, always an important factor in cranberry prices, is unusually fine, and with the excellent berry yield of the season there was apparently no reason why cranberries could not be purchased at prices at least nearly reasonable. A year ago, owing to a poor crop both of cranberries and apples, the sauce sold at extreme prices, reaching as high as $20 a barrel, while in the east many barrels sold for $25.

And right on top of the cranberry rate of rise comes the news that pumpkins, used as inside decorations for tempting pies, will be higher this year than they were last. The bright yellow fruit is now selling for 50 and 60 cents a dozen, which means that one pumpkin will sell to the consumer at 10 cents. This is not so bad, but in view of the bear stories being sent out the Christmas dinner menu will appear something like this:

Crabapple Cocktail
Green Apple Soup
Apple Patties
Roast Apple with Apple Sauce
Stuffed Young Apple
Apple Salad
Apple Pie

Try leaving off coffee 10 days and use Postum Food Coffee. If you find the old smothering sensation and the weak fluttering disappear, you will have the truth in a nutshell and will have located an enemy that has been pushing you day by day towards the narrow lot 2 x 4.

All the flaming advertisements of Importers trying to sell coffee and all the sneers of coffee toppers cannot drive the truth from you, once you have tested and learned the exact facts from personal experience.

I AM GOING

To tell you something interesting now. For years I've been harping about Gray's Yerba Santa being the greatest, the most wonderful, and the quickest cough cure known, haven't I? Well it was done in good faith, based on observation of thousands of cases during that time, and on reports of the users, that they had never seen its equal, that it resembled a charm, and that they could not be induced to experiment with other cough cures again. Can you blame me for being enthusiastic about Gray's Yerba Santa, and constantly trying to get you to try it for your cough? And ain't I trying to help and benefit you today? And ain't I guaranteeing it? You don't risk a cent in trying either a 50c or $1.00 bottle! CHAS. BEYSCHLAG, DRUGGIST, 503 MAIN ST.

NOVEMBER WILL BE BLEAK AND COLD

Bleak, chilly and zero weather may be expected in La Crosse during November according to the data of the month kept for the last thirty-four years. Weather Forecaster Oberholzer has issued a summary of November conditions.

While the average temperature of November has been 34 degrees, just over the freezing point, the coldest weather was 21 degrees below zero on Nov. 29, 1875, and the warmest November days the 21st in 1893 and the 20th in 1897, on which the thermometer registered a maximum of 72 degrees. The warmest month was that of 1899 with an average temperature of 42 degrees and the coldest was that of 1880 with an average of 25 degrees.

On an average, the month has eight days on which the precipitation exceeds .01 of an inch. The average precipitation for November is 1.47 inches, while the greatest precipitation was 4.36 inches in 1879 and the least .04 of an inch in 1903. These figures show that the month, compared with other months of the year, is a dry one. The greatest precipitation in twenty-four consecutive hours was 1.74 inches on Nov. 10, 1880, and the greatest snowfall on any one day was 6.6 inches on Nov. 25, 1893.

On the average, there are seven clear days, eleven partly cloudy and twelve cloudy.

Despite the general bleak aspect of La Crosse Novembers, it is a strange fact that the prevailing winds are southerly. That, however, is not saying they are balmy breezes, nor that they blow all the time from that direction. The old settler will tell about nor'westers.

The average velocity of the wind is 7.4 miles an hour. The most severe wind storm recorded in November was on Nov. 9, 1887, when the wind blew forty-five miles an hour from the northwest.

BOARD MUST MEET UNLUCKY "13TH"

If members of the county board or supervisors are superstitious, that body may not convene on Nov. 13 as required by the Wisconsin statutes. Of course, the board may meet, and then adjourn to a later date to begin the transaction of business, if any member so desires.

County Clerk Rawlinson looked up the law yesterday. "The first Tuesday succeeding the second Monday," said the county clerk, gazing at the calendar. "That's the first Tuesday after the second Monday."

"One Monday" pointing to Nov. 5. "Two Mondays" pointing to Nov. 12. "There it is, Tuesday, Nov. 13. That's a bad day." With this the county clerk remained mum.

Friday, on the 13th of the month generally has been regarded as a bad day for beginning any new work, but the county board may delegate any Tuesday on the thirteenth of a month as another day of ill omen.

The action of the county board remains to be seen, but the body probably will meet, disregarding the bad sign, and hoping to overcome any ill luck which may befall it.

GREAT DINNER BY HENRY EINERT

SATURDAY, ALL DAY AND EVENING, AT OPENING OF NEW BAR

Excellent appointed, artistically decorated, the remodeled saloon of Henry Einert, 1029 South Fourth street, will be opened to the public next Saturday in a house-warming of the like of which is not often seen in La Crosse.

The magnificence that marks the hospitality of his countrymen will characterize the opening of the new quarters. There will be refreshments all day Saturday and until Saturday night at 12 o'clock. It won't be a "lunch." It will be an every-hour banquet such as a caterer of Mr. Einert's capacity can be depended upon to provide. There will be roast pig, young and tender, chicken, ducks and geese. There will be all that goes to make these things as delightful as possible. The evening in particular will be replete with enjoyable features.

This swell entertainment is given in honor of the completion of Mr. Einert's new barroom. It is a splendid affair, bars of mahogany and walnut, heaviest French plate mirrors, burr-lapped walls over a cherry wainscoting, a fine painting in water colors back of it all. Large, airy and attractive, it affords one of the most delightful resorts in the city.

BIG SPECIAL OFFER TO INCREASE VOTES

It Only Takes Five Subscriptions to
Secure the Extra Ballot

Some of the Features of the Famous
Seaside Resort--Bathing, Boating
and Fishing

Contestants should not fail to take advantage of the special offer to increase their reserve votes.

5000 extra votes will be given to each and every contestant who turns in five new, twelve-month subscriptions to The Tribune between now and Saturday, November 10, 1906. 2000 extra ballots will be given to each and every contestant who turns in five new six-months subscriptions to The Tribune.

This offer affords each and every contestant the greatest chance to secure extra votes and at the same time catch the leaders.

Each day sees the interest in the Tribune's great $5000 popular voting contest increasing. Candidates both in and outside of La Crosse are putting forth every effort to win one of The Tribune's valuable prizes. The appearance of your name in the list published means that you have friends who desire to see you win some of the prizes. Your failure to take advantage of this splendid opportunity would be a disappointment to them. You can win one of the prizes if you desire. Pledge your territory and by utilizing all your leisure time you can easily be a winner.

If your name has not been published in any of the above lists, write to the contest manager at once and he will inform you what to do. Now nominations will be received at any time.

The secret of all success is in grasping the opportunity for securing one of the costly prizes may never occur.

DEBUT OF RUSSIAN PIANIST

(Special Tribune Dispatch.)
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.—Musical circles are much interested in the American debut here tonight of Josef Lheviante, the great Russian pianist, recently arrived in this country. Lheviante will make a transcontinental tour, going as far west as Denver and south as New Orleans.

BOOK CONCERN GIVES IN

(Special Tribune Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 4.—After a long and bitter fight with the International Typographical Union the Methodist Book Concern, publishers, has granted the eight-hour day to its employees, the change becoming effective today. The reduction affects the plants of the company at Cincinnati, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Detroit, New York, Chicago and Kansas City.

Store-management is something of "black art," for printers' ink is usually black, and without it there is no "store-management"—only "store-keeping."

S.S.S. —EXPELS— BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skins, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is filled are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands, and the skin is kept in a feverish, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood or prevent the outflow of poisons and acids; only constitutional treatment can do this. The countless washes, salves, lotions, etc., that are used cannot reach the humor-laden blood and are, therefore, useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood, which is the cause of the trouble, must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements to neutralize and remove the humor from the circulation. It completely eradicates every trace of the poison and restores this vital fluid to its natural state of purity. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid matter on the skin it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free.

Sheriff's Sales on Execution

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit court of La Crosse county, Wisconsin, in an action wherein Catherine Oehler was plaintiff and Mrs. W. J. (Sophia) Cameron was defendant and to me directed and delivered against the property of the defendant, and for want of personal property of the said defendant subject to seizure and sale on execution whereof the amount of such execution, or any part thereof could be made, I have seized, levied upon and taken all the right, title and interest that said defendant, Mrs. W. J. (Sophia) Cameron had on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1905, (that being the day upon which the judgment on which said execution was issued was docketed in La Crosse county) or has since acquired in and to the following described real estate lying and being situate in the county of La Crosse and state of Wisconsin, to-wit: The undivided one-half (1/2) of lot No. eight (8), block No. four (4) of Mons Anderson and B. E. Edward's addition to La Crosse, Wisconsin, and the undivided one-half (1/2) of lot number five (5), block number eight (8) of Mons Anderson and B. E. Edward's addition to La Crosse, Wisconsin, according to the recorded plat of said addition of record in the office of the register of deeds of La Crosse county, Wisconsin; subject, however, to homestead rights and the dower interest of Taaline Sandbo, which I will on Saturday, the 20th day of October, A. D. 1906, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the east front door of the court house, in the city and county of La Crosse and state aforesaid, expose for sale and sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, for cash, or so much thereof as will satisfy said execution and subsequent costs.

Dated, sheriff's office, La Crosse, Wis., this 6th day of September, A. D. 1906.

JOHN S. HOUGEN,
Sheriff of La Crosse County, Wis.
CHAS. B. MILLER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

This sale is hereby postponed until Nov. 10th, 1906, at the same hour and place mentioned in the above.

Dated, sheriff's office, La Crosse, Wis., this 20th day of October, A. D. 1906.

WASTE ENERGY.

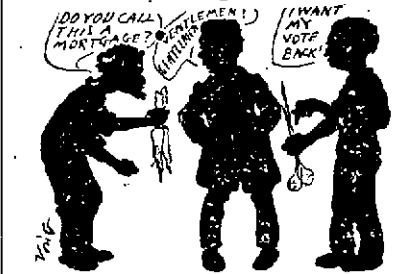

The time I waste in working out some scheme that will not work at all, in figuring how I may make a dollar notice when I call, in plans which, if they would outpan, that ought to put me to the good, I might, had I but sense enough, much better use in saving wood.

It is, I'm much inclined to think, a weakness common to the bunch. We like to sit around and dream. About a fine and foxy hunch. That's going to drop a fortune down. And go away without a fuss. And so we cannot notice work. Or hear the woodpile calling us.

We dream about the things we'll do. When, treasure laden, comes our scow. And then we hypnotize ourselves. To think it's here already, now. And all the hours we sit and smile. Are wasted moments, I'm afraid. We could have made, had we but worked. At least a dollar with our spade.

But what's the difference anyway? Those are the moments we enjoy. The future seems a Christmas tree. On every branch a useful toy. Had we been working all the time. To keep the throbbing boiler hot. We might have had a dollar more. To buy a gold brick, like as not.

Something Like It.

"Senator Hayseed is doing a new electioneering stunt."

"What is it?"
"Going about the country making speeches and giving to each man in the audience a package of seeds warranted every package to raise a mortgage."

Needs Tending To.

Uncle Sam may be obliged to take the powder trust over his knee and fondle it lovingly with a shingle. Just because it sees him spending money recklessly for candles, lead pencils, ink wells and such necessary articles the powder trust thinks that the uncle under discussion has a lot of money that he doesn't know what to do with, and it proceeds to put up the price in a way that would cause an iceman to blush.

Knowing that Uncle Sam was one of its best customers, it would watch for him and every time it saw him coming would put up the price a few notches. Then, if he walked by without purchasing, the price would be still higher when he came back.

So if you hear a loud report some morning in the direction of the powder trust, followed by a big puff of smoke, do not be startled. It will only be Uncle Samuel having a little choice revenge.

Knew Better.

He said, "My son, the world is wide." The youngster whispered in the side, "That doesn't seem a truth profound, because I know the world is round."

Explained.

"What's the reason women are always so absurd?"
"Why, just see how foolish the men would be in comparison if they were not absurd."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

A man may be lord of creation, but the baby has yet to be born who will admit it.

The hair that he hasn't got is always calling attention to the baldheaded man.

Some women seem to preserve their complexion very well, while others succeed only in pickeling it.

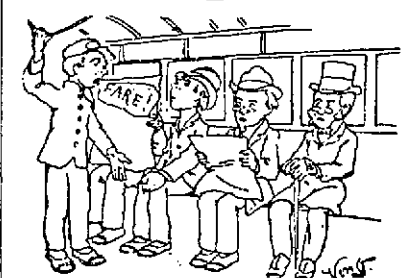

We know a woman by the company she avoids.

Most hired girls are remembered for the things that they did not do.

A busy tongue is no evidence of an industrious person.

If a man with instinct were to meet a woman with logic they doubtless would immediately swap characteristics without waiting for the formality of an introduction.

A woman who would guarantee satisfaction in the training of husbands would satisfy a modern want.

Very few people are troubled with a conscience that is working overtime when the street car conductor misses them.

Being her husband's preferred creditor is the thing that best suits a woman.

Many booms begin at home and stay there.

BRYAN ENDORSES DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES IN WISCONSIN

"You allow pro-brother wealth not only to plunder the people but you allow it to demoralize those who were its beneficiaries. They have debauched politics, they have corrupted business. Will you help us now to apply this remedy? You have a chance in the election of our democratic friends to congress, and you have a chance in

AYLWARD'S CANVASS

Mr. Aylward is making a strong campaign in behalf of his party. He is going about the state speaking two and three times daily, and the reports of his meeting show a large attendance. M. L. Luck, candidate for attorney-general, a fine speaker, is also doing effective work, and there are others.

One development of the campaign is that all democrats will this fall vote the democrat ticket. The democrat party has built a platform upon which all democrats can stand and work with enthusiasm, a platform which insures a united harmonious party.

Guesses are made as to what La Follette republicans will do on election day. They have three courses open to them. They can vote for the ticket labeled republican, but not republican as they understand the term, or they can vote the democratic ticket, or they can stay at home and not vote at all.

Mr. Aylward is showing conclusively that to vote for the Connor ticket is to vote to put the stalwarts in power again, and the only way to prevent this is to defeat the Connor crowd by voting the democratic ticket. Much depends on the independent vote this election, as has been the case in many elections that have gone before.

NEW ZEALAND EXHIBITION

(Tribune Special Service.)

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Nov. 1.—The great international New Zealand exhibition, on which the government has spent large sums, was formally opened at Christ church today. All parts of the British empire, including the Dominion of Canada, are well represented at the exhibition. One of the interesting displays is the Maori section, illustrating the life, habits and industries of the aborigines. Another striking feature is the display of fine native woods that New Zealand is just beginning to exploit. The exhibition will continue six months and is expected to draw visitors from all parts of the world.

NEWS AND NOTES OF SPORT

(Special Tribune Service.)

Arthur Cote and Rudolf Unholz are slated for a bout tonight before a club at Lowell, Mass.

San Jose, Stockton and Sacramento are having a great fight for the pennant in the California State baseball league.

The new Western Pennsylvania baseball league will have clubs in McKeesport, Greensburg, Latrobe, Scottsdale, and Connellsville.

The Atlantic baseball league has been organized for next season and will embrace in its circuit Trenton, Wilmington, Chester, Reading, Allentown and Easton.

Dick Crozier and Otto Jordan have opened a swell candy store in Atlanta, Ga. Both are members of the Atlanta club.

Mosey King has been engaged as assistant to Prof. Billy Doie, boxing instructor at Yale.

Big pin bowling is down and out in Massachusetts. The state association has decided to hold no tournament this year as only four clubs could be found that would enter.

Frank Isbell of the White Sox took home with him to Wichita the bat that he used in the recent world's championship games. He says that he will never part with it.

Dick Hyland and George Decker are on the cards for a fight tomorrow night and Ogden, Utah.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

(Special Tribune Service.)

GREENCASTLE, Ind., Nov. 1.—The Alpha Chi Omega sorority began its national convention in Greencastle today as the guest of the De Pauw university chapter. Delegates are in attendance from Pomona College, Northwestern University, University of Michigan, University of Wisconsin, Albion College, University of Illinois, and several other colleges in various parts of the country. The convention is to continue in session three days.

FORESTALLING ELECTION

(Tribune Special Service.)

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 1.—The Public Service Corporation which controls all the trolley lines, electric light and gas plants in northern New Jersey, today put into effect reduced car rates over a large part of its system. Announcement is made that marked reductions in the price of electric lighting and gas are also contemplated. This move on the part of the corporation is believed to have been influenced by the fact that at next week's elections a number of municipalities are to vote on the question of building their own lighting plants.

REDUCED RAILROAD RATES

(Special Tribune Service.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 1.—The Central Passenger association today put into effect a 2 1/2 cent rate in all its territory east of Illinois, in which the state legislatures have not already made a maximum rate of 2 cents. The new schedule reduces the local rates only in Indiana and western Pennsylvania, as Michigan and Ohio have 2-cent fare laws, but it involves a lowering of all interstate passenger rates north of the Ohio river and west of Syracuse, N. Y. The change involves a loss of many hundreds of thousands of dollars' revenue yearly to the railroads unless it shall cause a heavy increase in traffic, and traffic officials doubt if the reduction is sufficient to have that effect. They assert that a further reduction to 2 cents would make it necessary to recoup their losses by largely discontinuing excursions.

MICHIGAN ENDEAVORERS

(Tribune Special Service.)

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 1.—The capital city of Michigan is in the hands of the Christian Endeavorers. Delegates to the biennial state convention have been arriving throughout the day, and the indications are that the attendance will eclipse that at any previous convention. The city is in gala attire in honor of the guests, the decorations being elaborate on both business houses and residences. The largest delegations are from Detroit, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Jackson. Other cities throughout the state, however, are well represented. The opening day was chiefly given over to the reception of the visitors and the completion of the convention arrangements.

The four days' program has been arranged on the institute plan with addresses by leaders in different lines of Christian Endeavor work. Among those to be heard are Miss Grace C. Glenn, formerly missionary to Japan; William Shaw of Boston, treasurer of the national world's unions of Christian Endeavor, and Rev. C. H. Hubbell of Columbus, field secretary for Ohio.

Help Those Who Are Helping You

There is nothing that helps a town prosper-like buying the goods it manufactures.

There are represented herewith some of our most prosperous and best manufacturers of commodities—goods that are of the highest grade.

La Crosse has made wonderful strides of progress in five years. It is chiefly because the "trade at home motto" has imbued the people. Our citizens have scoffed at the highly colored and luring advertisements of the mail order grafters, which kept La Crosse in the ranks of the villages for decades, and have wisely determined to support home manufacturers—the people who support them.
